

All are invited to a gathering to:

'We women of one country will be too tender to those of another country to allow our sons to be trained to injure theirs.' Julia Ward Howe, from original Mothers' Day Proclamation,

BRING PEACE HOME ON MOTHERS' DAY

Saturday, May 9, 2009

12:00 – 4:00 pm

Arch Street United Methodist Church
Broad & Arch Streets, Philadelphia, PA

12:00

Light lunch – Donations gladly accepted

12:30

What's Going on in Congress

Members of Congressional Progressive Caucus invited

1:00

Music & Poetry:

- Julia Ward Howe's proclamation read by Celeste Zappala, Gold Star Families Speak Out
- Voices of a Different Dream – poetry & song
- SpiralSong – feminist spirituality vocal ensemble
- Granny Peace Brigade - women “of a certain age” sing for peace

2:00

Workshops:

- Costs of War – David Gibson, Coalition for Peace Action
- Issues of Union Women – Kathy Black, Coal. of Labor Union Women
- Domestic Abuse – Rani Mothey, Life Beyond Abuse
- Immigrant Women – Lisa Baird, atty., & an immigrant advocate
- Street Violence – Bryan Miller, Ceasefire NJ, & Ruth Donnelly, Mothers in Charge
- Afghanistan – Peter Lems, American Friends Service Committee
- Energy Justice – Carol Burnett, Del.Co. Alliance for Env. Justice

3:00

Reporting Back and Inspiration for the Journey:

Led by Michael Gagne of Envision Peace Museum

Sponsored by United for Peace & Justice - Delaware Valley Network

<http://www.ufpj-dvn.org/> For information 215-528-6130