Meet Julie Rigano (she/they)- our New Religious Educator!

We have signed a letter of agreement with our new Religious Educator, Julie Rigano! Julie (she&they) is a lifelong UU who grew up in a small congregation in Westchester, NY where they also served as a Religious Education Intern after college. She served as Director of Lifespan Religious Education for about three years in Schenectady, NY before moving to Philadelphia in early 2018. Since moving to Philly, she has served as an RE teacher at the First Unitarian Church of Philadelphia. Julie has a passion for covenantal relationship and spiritual growth - the fourth principle is their favorite. They also have a passion for cooking, comedy, and Formula1 racing. This bio also serves as a good example of how to use both of Julie's pronouns to fully represent all of who Julie is. Please introduce yourself and let Julie know how much you appreciate her joining us!

Joys and Sorrows:

Sharon F: Very relevant topic. I just attended the Obon Festival at the Shofuso Japanese House and garden and sent out a lighted decorated paper lantern on the water to honor the ancestors and loved ones.

Extending prayers for those caught in the floods in KY

McKinley: Thinking of my friends Joel N. and Marsaughn M., and their families, back home in TX.

Julie R: My joy is being here today and joining you all in your work and worship together.

Elisa N: My Daughter Patrice and her family continue to need prayers. TY

Holly J: Please hold the Bradburds in your thoughts and prayers. Julie is in rehab at Foulkeways after a hospital stay for a TIA. Brad, as you know, is incredibly capable and has limited sight. They would welcome cards and visits.

Bernadette: Prayers and light and healing to all family and friends mentioned and not mentioned in need

Mary L: Prayers for health and peace for all.
