

RE Corner

As we continue to weave our connections of love and remembrance, last week we or connections to ourselves, our families, our communities, our country, and our blue boat home. Valentina drew beautiful circles of love.

This week as we explore Transgender Day of Remembrance, I will ask you "What are your pronouns?" Mine are she, her, and hers. Most people would prefer to be understood, seen, and celebrated for who they truly are. Someone who is non-binary, transgender, or gender non-conforming also want to be so affirmed. If you have not already done so, please use one of the pronoun stickers that are in the vestibule and add it to your nametag. You can find out more about the importance of the proper use of pronouns at these websites:

Join us this Sunday as we explore the life and death of one transgender Philadelphian.

Many thanks to those of you who have returned the Google form indicating your interest in joining the Religious Education Team The form below can be used, or you can complete a hard-copy form on any Sunday. Completed forms can be returned to my mailbox in the office or emailed to me at religioused@uumtairy.org
