

Fundraiser Update

The Carnival in Rio fundraiser was a success! Many thanks to those who contributed services and events, and to all those who bid on those offerings so generously. Although the event has officially ended there are still a number of items that are still available to bid upon. If you're interested in bidding, please contact the person who has offered the event or service or email Stephen Workman (workmancc@verizon.net) for additional details. All proceeds will benefit the treasury of UUs of Mt. Airy Here are some items you may want to consider:
